Minor in Sociology

Program Learning Outcomes Program Learning Outcomes

Students who successfully complete this program shall be able to:

- 1. Recognize the influence of race, class, and gender on human behavior and social conditions.
- 2. Utilize the comparative and historical perspective to evaluate the effects of the social context on cultural beliefs, values, attitudes and practices.
- 3. Gain a sociological perspective on human behavior and the social order—including social structures and institutional practices—that empowers them to act in response to the Scriptural mandate to work for peace and justice.
